Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

The Secretary of State has issued Regulations setting out what constitutes a "disclosable pecuniary interest". They relate not only to your interests but also to those of your partner (which means spouse or civil partner, a person with whom you are living as husband or wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you are civil partners).

However, when completing the form, you do not need to necessarily differentiate between those interests which apply to you and/ or those which apply to your partner.

Sensitive Interests

If you consider that information relating to any of your interests is a 'Sensitive Interest' you need not include that interest provided you have consulted with the Monitoring Officer and he agrees that it need not be included.

A 'Sensitive Interest' is an interest which could create or is likely to create a serious risk that you or a person connected with you may be subjected to violence or intimidation.

Where the interest is no longer a 'Sensitive Interest' you must notify the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of that change.

Words in italics give some explanation/ background about what is required. This form gives general guidance, but is not comprehensive.
